

Social Happenings in State Towns

EPHRAIM.

Sixty guests were assembled Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Olsen in honor of the marriage of their daughter, Lillian, to Henry C. Stevens. The marriage was solemnized at the county court house Thursday afternoon.

Thomas A. Peterson performed the ceremony. Dinner was served about 6 o'clock after which the guests spent the evening in music, games, etc. The young people will make their home in this city.

Mrs. Ella Bailey delightfully entertained at her home Thursday afternoon. An elaborate lunch was served about 1 o'clock. Games were played and a musical program rendered.

Mrs. James Frost was the hostess at a Kensington tea party given at her home on First West street Saturday afternoon. The time was pleasantly spent in a musical program.

Another social of the week was the party given by Mrs. Adolph Hanson in honor of her sister, Mrs. J. A. Young of Canada. A dainty luncheon was served and later in the day light refreshments were served. The guests numbered sixteen.

Miss Alice Lund left for Spanish Fork Friday, where she will spend a few days visiting friends.

George A. Cooper of Fillmore and Irene Bartholomew of Fayette were married at the Manti temple Wednesday. They will make their home in this city.

Miss Fredonia Christensen entertained at a noon party Saturday night.

A crowd consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Johanson, Mr. and Mrs. David Poulson, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Larsen, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Bunch, Mrs. Dan Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Larsen, Mr. and Mrs. Olie Christensen dined in Saturday evening and gave Mr. and Mrs. Frank Madsen a surprise, bringing with them picnic, etc. A most pleasant evening was spent. Mr. and Mrs. Madsen left the following morning for Idaho, where they are intending to make their home for some time.

Miss Katie Kellee Olsen during the early part of the week.

Wilford Dorland was pleasantly surprised by about forty of his friends Thursday evening.

Miss Vera Mork of Mt. Pleasant renewed old acquaintances in this city Sunday and Monday. She returned to her home Wednesday.

Mrs. Clarence Madsen of Manti spent a few days at Ephraim visiting friends and relatives.

The marriage of Miss Lillian Dyring to J. W. Wells will take place Wednesday at the home of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Larsen of this city are visiting friends and relatives in Emery county this week.

W. J. Dunn returned Thursday from an extended trip to the east. He is in company with Mrs. Dunn, who will shortly leave for their home in Thistle.

Miss Fern Peterson and Miss Clara Dorst left Wednesday for Richfield, where they intend to spend a few weeks.

Miss Sarah P. Peterson was a visitor to the state capital during the week.

Miss Myrtle Peterson and Agnes Thompson made a pleasure trip to the Temple City Tuesday.

Miss Emily Christensen left for Levan Monday, where she has accepted a position to teach in the public schools of Levan during the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Beal have returned. Mr. Beal has been spending the summer at Saltair. He will be one of the instructors in the Snow academy this year.

SALINA.

Supervisor N. E. Snell and wife spent part of the week at the state capital.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lewis are in attendance at the fair at Richfield.

Miss Ruby Stevens departed for Brigham City, where she has been employed as a teacher in the Brigham City public schools.

Mrs. J. A. Kearnes left for her home in Salt Lake Monday, after spending a couple of weeks visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Peterson.

James Rex and his sister, Violet, came down to Salina Sunday for a short visit. They returned Monday to Salt Lake, where they are attending school.

Mrs. A. V. Hulsh left for Payson last Thursday, where she will visit for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rex, Jr., have gone to Brigham, where they intend making their home for the winter.

James S. Bovard of Salt Lake is visiting friends at Salina this week.

Serena Stevens left for Salt Lake Monday on a short visit.

Dr. and Mrs. West are at Richfield for a few days.

Mrs. Norris of Salt Lake is a guest at the home of Mrs. A. V. Hulsh.

Miss Minnie Cooper and Effie Rex are renewing old acquaintances at Richfield this week.

School commenced at Salina Tuesday morning, and a very good attendance was present. The following teachers are employed: Ella Freese, Ruth Gottfredson, Tully Butler, Mary Christensen, Miss Lashley Stewart Scorp.

Ruby Robbins left during the early part of the week to teach at Vermilion.

TINTIC.

Mr. and Mrs. George Faxman were Eureka visitors during the week.

Mrs. Isaac Ferguson, who has been visiting in Lehi, returned to Eureka last Monday.

Mrs. J. A. Hensel returned last Saturday from a short sojourn in Salt Lake City.

Mrs. Bonner returned last Wednesday from a visit in the capital.

T. L. Foote of Nephi was in Eureka during the week.

Mrs. E. G. Hanson and daughter returned last Tuesday to make a visit with friends in Salt Lake City.

Miss Treston of Rockwell, Ia., who is a sister of Mrs. Bonner of Eureka, is visiting the latter in Eureka.

Miss May Carter is visiting relatives in Payson.

Miss Maggie Bonner is visiting friends in the capital.

H. C. Don Carlos was a visitor in Salt Lake City during the week, returning Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. P. Romeril returned last Wednesday after a visit with friends in Spanish Fork.

David Mills made a business trip to Mercus during the week.

James Morgan and Frank Barrett went to Utah Hot Springs last Monday to receive treatment for their rheumatism. They will remain until the first of next month.

John A. Condon of Mammoth was among this week's visitors in Salt Lake.

Miss Mabel Van Trump is now teaching school in Elberta, Utah.

After a pleasant visit with the family of W. F. Shriver, Mr. and Mrs. John Harper of San Francisco left for Colorado and Texas. They will make an extended tour of those states before returning to their home.

I. J. Barnard, bookkeeper at the Centennial-Eureka mine, was a visitor to Salt Lake City during the week.

Mrs. William Dunn, who with her children has been living in Provo, will return shortly to Eureka to be with her husband.

Mrs. Jere Driscoll returned home to Eureka last Sunday. Her mother, Mrs. Dan Martin, who had been with her in the capital, accompanied her home.

Hugh Hoffer and Charles M. R. Sullivan left last Saturday for a trip into Provo canyon and Strawberry valley. They expect to remain about a month.

L. S. Alcock returned last Tuesday from Florence, Colo., where he went to attend the funeral of his foster mother, Mrs. Bullington.

George Hodgins of Salt Lake City was a Tintic visitor during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Shontz of Denver, Colo., are visiting the former's brother, Fred Shontz, and also Joseph Allen, Joseph Friebe, formerly mayor of Provo, who is in Eureka the beginning of the week to attend the funeral services of the late Ephraim Frisby, his brother.

Mrs. Van Tromp came out from Salt Lake City last Monday evening.

Mrs. M. R. E. Sullivan returned last Tuesday after a few days' visit with relatives.

Miss Nellie B. Hulsh of Payson is the guest of friends and relatives in Eureka.

M. W. Bird spent Sunday with his family in Springville.

W. Lester Mangum, manager of the Tintic smelter, was up from Provo during the week.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Fredrickson last Thursday morning.

Mrs. Alberg returned last Monday evening after a visit in Provo. She was accompanied to Eureka by her daughter, Mrs. S. H. Vance.

Mrs. E. J. Siebold returned last Friday from Lehi, Nev., where she had been visiting her husband for the past two months.

Mrs. Fred Shontz and family left this week for Provo, where they will reside in the future, so that the children may attend school there. Last Saturday evening Mrs. Shontz was the recipient of a very pleasant surprise at the hands of the members of Columbia lodge No. 2, Rebekah.

Mrs. Shontz has always taken a very prominent part in the affairs of the lodge. The members and their friends met at their hall and proceeded in a body to the home of Mrs. Shontz, who was taken completely by surprise. An adjournment was then made to the lodge room, where the evening was very pleasantly spent with card playing, music, etc. A nice lunch was also served.

The White to Miss Asenath Bowden took place last Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's mother. A few intimate friends of the family witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by Judge Lindsay. After the ceremony the invited guests arrived and a sumptuous wedding dinner was much enjoyed. The happy couple were the recipients of many beautiful wedding presents.

The Trocadero, which has been dark all summer, was the center of attraction Saturday evening, when the opening dance of the season was given. A number of dances are scheduled for the coming winter.

Arthur Stall of Pioche, who has been here on a short trip, has departed for his home.

Thomas Moore of Spanish Fork was in Murray Tuesday looking up old acquaintances.

Sherman Freeze has left for Salt Lake, where he will attend school at the L. D. S. university.

Martin Peel is back from a two months' absence spent with his parents in Montana.

Arthur King, accompanied by his son, left Friday for the east, where his son will enter school.

Harry King has left for his home in San Francisco, after spending some time here with relatives.

J. Louis Brown left Friday for Chicago, where he goes to complete his studies.

The wedding of Miss Brinton to Chester P. Cahoon will take place Sept. 22.

Mrs. Atkins of Salt Lake has left for her home, after a stay of some time here.

The Rev. Jesse Hyde left Wednesday for Wyoming, where he will reside in the future.

Miss Helen Copeland entertained a number of her young girl friends at a theatre party at the Happy Hour Friday evening.

J. C. Scott spent part of this week at Provo on a short business trip.

Henry Birdell left Thursday for Boston, where he intends entering school.

George Randall was here Sunday visiting with J. Roy Powell and shaking hands with old acquaintances.

Mr. and Mrs. Ridd returned to their home in the south Tuesday.

Miss Hilley and John Keep were united in marriage the fore part of this week.

Mrs. Brown of Idaho Falls is here to spend some time with her sister, Mrs. W. C. Churches.

Joseph L. Martin of Tooele was a pilgrim to Murray the latter part of the week.

Miss Nellie Hamilton will return shortly from Idaho, where she has been spending her summer vacation.

R. H. Winder has left for Weiser, Ida., on an extended business trip.

Dr. C. L. Olson, formerly physician at this place, sojourned here for a day this week.

Frank Stevens is home from his Idaho trip.

N. J. Malmstrom left Sunday for a fortnight visit at Denver.

Rev. Parry of Wyoming will arrive soon to take charge of the Baptist church.

J. C. White and wife visited friends at Salt Lake Friday and Saturday of this week.

Joe Stearns has departed for Eureka, where he will remain the coming winter.

Bob Wilkinson has left for Phoenix, Ariz., to remain some months.

L. Nelson has left for Logan, where he will remain during the coming school year.

J. Hawkins left Friday evening over the Salt Lake route for Lynn.

Mrs. Wooley is here from Idaho to visit with relatives.

George Langford spent the past week with relatives in southern Idaho.

William Watts left Thursday for his home after a fortnight's sojourn here with relatives.

R. E. Davidson, formerly one of the staff of instructors at the Arlington school, is at Los Angeles completing his studies.

Mrs. Leonard Watts Cahoon of Salt Lake was here for a day's visit this week.

Miss Peterson returned from Manti the first of the week, where she has been visiting the past two weeks.

P. D. Dyce of Idaho is visiting here with relatives this week.

The stork left a baby boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dundas Thursday last.

Mr. and Mrs. John Goodall, Mr. and Mrs. John Birch and John Berger have returned from their summer outing spent in Big Cottonwood canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Hearst of Ogden spent Thursday in Murray.

Fredrick W. Reay, formerly of California, where she goes to spend the winter.

Mrs. W. K. Butts arrived Thursday from Virginia, where she has been for the past month visiting with relatives.

Jessie Ecton of Ophir is here this week visiting with Mr. and Mrs. John Williams.

Mrs. Chester has left for Wyoming, where she will reside in the future.

Mrs. Ada Kinney is here after a summer spent out of town.

Miss Maggie Powell of Salt Lake is here visiting with relatives this week.

L. C. Moore of Boulder, Colo., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Lance of Mill Creek.

Mrs. L. M. Taylor of Logan is in town for a few days' sojourn.

J. C. Holt is here from southern Idaho, where he has been for some months.

Miss Gudmundsen returned Tuesday from a visit of several weeks in the east.

The marriage of Morn T. Hoggan to Miss Alice Jorgensen of Emery county, at the temple Wednesday was solemnized by President Lewis Anderson. A reception was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Hoggan, parents of the groom, at their home on the same evening, when relatives and friends gathered to participate in the program arranged for the occasion.

Frederick W. Reids, son of Bishop Henry M. Reid of Orangeville, and Miss Maggie May Poulson, also of Orangeville, were united in marriage at the temple Wednesday at noon. President Lewis Anderson performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Reid both have a host of relatives in the Temple city who will wish them success through life.

The engagement of Miss Annie L. Richards to Wellington L. Hall has been announced, the wedding to take place in the Manti temple Wednesday, Sept. 23. Both are among the most popular young people of our city.

John D. Oldroyd and Miss Tessie M. Bell, both of Glenwood, were married at the temple Wednesday last.

William A. Morley and Miss Lydia L. Johnson of Moroni were married at the temple Wednesday last. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Morley and the bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lars Johnson.

Mrs. Trena Wambolt of Mount Pleasant spent Tuesday last in Manti visiting friends.

Lydia Johnson of Moroni visited friends in the Temple city Tuesday last.

L. P. Nielsen of Mount Pleasant was a visitor in Manti during Thursday last.

M. F. Murray of Ephraim visited friends in Manti Thursday last.

George A. Cooper of Fillmore and Miss Irene Bartholomew of Fayette were married at the temple Wednesday last. The bride is the popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bartholomew of Fayette.

Minnie Barney of Spring City visited friends in Manti during the present week.

Emily Woodward of Provo spent several days in Manti visiting friends.

Mrs. Warren Tye of Ephraim was a Manti visitor Tuesday last.

Mrs. Christine Thompson of Centerfield spent Tuesday last in Manti visiting friends.

Frank C. Taylor of Sugar House was the Salt Lake visitor at the convention of the Y. M. M. I. A. Sunday last, and Mrs. Emma Goddard of the metropolis represented the general board at the meeting of the young ladies.

Mrs. and Mrs. Joseph B. Swapp of Tropic visited friends in the Temple city during the week.

Mrs. Christian Poulson of Orangeville was a visitor at the temple Wednesday to witness the marriage of her daughter, Maggie May, to Fred W. Reid.

Mrs. Effie Peacock of Sterling visited relatives and friends in Manti Tuesday last.

Mr. and Mrs. William Perkins of Gunnison were Manti visitors Wednesday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Easton Kealey of Spring City visited friends in Manti Wednesday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Christen Axelsen entertained a number of their friends at cards Thursday evening.

The primary officers of Manti entertained the parents of their pupils at a social in this city this week.

Mrs. Burbridge of Salt Lake City is a guest at the home of Miss Hattie Parry.

William R. Warnock of Monroe returned to his home Thursday after spending a few days with friends.

Mary J. Aiken of Spring City visited friends in Manti this week.

Mrs. Caroline L. Bailey of Ephraim spent part of the week in Manti visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer W. Gilger spent the week in Manti visiting friends.

Mrs. Ernest Evans left for her home in Salt Lake City after spending a few months in Manti with her father and other relatives.

Miss Florence Braithwaite returned to her home here after spending a week in Sterling with her sister, Mrs. Marion Wiley.

Peter Greaves and J. F. McAfferty of Ephraim were business visitors in Manti this week.

Fred N. Swalberg of Gunnison was in Manti visiting friends during the week.

L. R. Anderson returned from Salt Lake City Friday last after attending the state convention.

Miss Alice Drake and Alma West were married on Peach Day at the home of Mrs. M. E. Campbell in this city, the Rev. C. K. Mikkelsen officiating. Mrs. Mary Drake acted as bridesmaid and Hyrum Fowler as best man. The rooms were beautifully decorated in pink and green, in harmony with the Peach Day colors.

The bride was attired in a lace net dress over pale blue, while the groom wore a full dress suit. An elaborate wedding breakfast was served immediately after the wedding ceremony in the grape arbor.

Mr. and Mrs. West will make their home in Bear River canyon.

At the home of Peter C. Jensen in this city Wednesday, Miss Myrtle Jensen and George Glason, two of Garland's highly respected and popular young people, were married by President Odeen N. Stohl.

A wedding reception was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mortensen last evening in honor of the recent marriage of Lawrence Mortensen and Miss Hulda Hansen. Mr. Mortensen was formerly of this city, but now resides at Salt Lake City, where the young couple will make their future home.

Thursday Miss Elma Christensen and William M. Fowler of this city were married at Farmington. They will make their home in Brigham.

E. T. Ralph arrived home Saturday from his mission on the Atlantic coast, having been absent twenty-seven months.

BRIGHAM CITY.

Miss Alice Drake and Alma West were married on Peach Day at the home of Mrs. M. E. Campbell in this city, the Rev. C. K. Mikkelsen officiating. Mrs. Mary Drake acted as bridesmaid and Hyrum Fowler as best man. The rooms were beautifully decorated in pink and green, in harmony with the Peach Day colors.

The bride was attired in a lace net dress over pale blue, while the groom wore a full dress suit. An elaborate wedding breakfast was served immediately after the wedding ceremony in the grape arbor.

Mr. and Mrs. West will make their home in Bear River canyon.

At the home of Peter C. Jensen in this city Wednesday, Miss Myrtle Jensen and George Glason, two of Garland's highly respected and popular young people, were married by President Odeen N. Stohl.

A wedding reception was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mortensen last evening in honor of the recent marriage of Lawrence Mortensen and Miss Hulda Hansen. Mr. Mortensen was formerly of this city, but now resides at Salt Lake City, where the young couple will make their future home.

Thursday Miss Elma Christensen and William M. Fowler of this city were married at Farmington. They will make their home in Brigham.

E. T. Ralph arrived home Saturday from his mission on the Atlantic coast, having been absent twenty-seven months.

Continued on Page 13.

Continued on Page 13.

Continued on Page 13.

Continued on Page 13.

Continued on Page 13.

Continued on Page 13.

Continued on Page 13.

Continued on Page 13.

Continued on Page 13.

Continued on Page 13.

Big Silk Sale

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, AND DURING WEEK

SATURDAY'S EXTRAORDINARY SILK SALE CONTINUED

$1.00 TAFFETA SILK, 55c

Monday, September 21, we will sell Taffeta Silk, 19 inches wide, at an exceptional price while the silk lasts. Quite fortunately, our buyer obtained 8,000 yards of this silk at a manufacturer's sacrifice sale. You are to receive the benefit of the purchase. Sells regularly at $1.00 a yard, and the variety comprises all colors and black. Very suitable for full dresses, waists and underskirts.

55c Truly the Silk Bargain of the year. Monday and week your choice at, a yard . . . 55c

FALL MILLINERY STYLES

New importations and creations from our own Millinery experts make our showing just as varied, just as complete, and just as beautiful as it was on Opening Day.

If in town Monday, or during the week, we invite you to call and visit us.

Bedding Reductions For Three Days Only

Just when you are about to replenish your bedding supply in readiness for winter, we offer you these impelling price reductions for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

COTTON QUILTS.

$1.25 Grades for.....$1.00	$3.50 Grades for.....$2.80
$2.00 Grades for.....$1.60	$4.00 Grades for.....$3.20
$2.50 Grades for.....$2.00	$5.00 Grades for.....$4.00
$3.00 Grades for.....$2.40	$6.00 Grades for.....$4.80

DOWN QUILTS.

$ 8.00 Grades for.....$6.40	$16.50 Grades for.....$13.20
$ 9.00 Grades for.....$7.20	$25.00 Grades for.....$20.00
$10.00 Grades for.....$8.00	$27.50 Grades for.....$22.00
$11.50 Grades for.....$9.20	$30.00 Grades for.....$24.00

GRAY COTTON BLANKETS.

65c Grades for.....52c	$1.25 Grades for.....$1.00
75c Grades for.....60c	$1.65 Grades for.....$1.30
90c Grades for.....72c	$1.75 Grades for.....$1.40

WHITE COTTON BLANKETS.

$1.00 Grades for.....80c	$1.75 Grades for.....$1.40
$1.25 Grades for.....$1.00	$3.50 Grades for.....$2.80

WHITE WOOL BLANKETS.

$7.50 Grades for.....$6.00	$10.50 Grades for.....$8.40
------------------------------	-------------------------------